HOW DEVELOPERS DESTROY

This report shows what a large property developer has done to a small area in the centre of London. It itemises how property is acquired, people coerced to leave and the properties left to rot. Well produced and a good example of getting together evidence to fight developers. Tolmers Destroyed, price 25p (incl. postage) from Tolmers Village Assoc., 102 Drummond Street, London NW1 (tel. 01-387-4004).

architect/planner

The Tolmers Village Association requires someone with experience of planning matters to start work as soon as possible. Job will involve: working with local people and groups; formulating alternative proposals and solutions; communicating with Camden Council's planners, architects and members; organising public meetings, questionnaires, petitions etc. Salary £1800 to £2500. Possibility of free accommodation.

For details of the area see CA No. II, p. 7, and this issue, p. 29. Enthusiasm, energy and initiative required. Contact: Nick Wates or Rachel Syers. TVA, 102 Drummond St. London NW.1. Tel: 01-387-4004.
