"I ALWAYS WONDERED WHAT HE WAS DOING ON THE COUNCIL."

LEVY WALKER SAME PARTY ?

Ivor Walker, Councillor for Camden Ward, and until recently Chairman of the Planning Committee, is the only Labour member of Camden Council known to have received an invitation to property developer Joe Levy's farewell party at the plush Dorchester Hotel.

Mr. Levy is retiring from Stock Conversion and Investment Trust Ltd., the Company seeking to develop Tolmers Square, and Mr. Walker, who has vigorously supported the scheme all along, will have the chance to partake of the champagne and cake.
